

Ein herzliches Hallo von der Insel

10 Years Raja4Divers

Exactly 10 years ago, in June 2011, after a good six months of construction work and various test guests, we welcomed our first official guests: Kim & Mike from Hawai'i who came to spend their honeymoon on Pulau Pef.

Kim and Mike left this wonderful comment in our guestbook after their holiday with us:

«To all the staff at Pulau Pef - Words cannot express our gratitude for a perfect honeymoon, complete with 2 magical birthdays. It's true, the diving is sublime, the food is delicious, the setting is unparalleled, and the bungalows are gorgeous. But what we will always treasure in our memories will be the warmth and generosity of the staff here. We will never forget our musical welcome, the hands that helped us onto the dive boat, the friendly smiles. I will hear your music in my dreams forever, and we will look forward to our return one day. Mahalo and Aloha (thank-you!)

Kim - Kamuela, Hawai'i

Mike - USA»

We hope that this year - 10 years later - we will soon be able to welcome guests from all over the world again. In the meantime, restrictions are being loosened in many countries. Unfortunately, we still have no information about the opening of the Indonesian borders.

Let's continue to exercise patience and confidence and keep our spirits up!

We are building our first small boat

We are not running out of ideas yet. As we still have some fibreglass material that needs to be used before it goes bad, we decided to build our own small boat.

Our carpenter and artist, Pak Busro, is full of enthusiasm and currently building the chipboard form. This small boat will have a 15hp engine and is intended for small transports and to patrol around Pulau Pef.
